

Quick Start to download books

These are general guides to download eBooks, although some steps may differ depending on device, model, etc. Many FAQs are on the ECRL OverDrive site for more detailed information

How to Download Library eBooks to your eReader

Books are downloaded to a computer and transferred to the eReader.

Before downloading - you must have Adobe Digital Editions installed on your computer, and your device must be authorized using your Adobe ID. Follow links on ECRL OverDrive page. You must also have Adobe Flash Player installed and JavaScript must be enabled.

- From a computer, go ECRL Overdrive at ecrl.lib.overdrive.com.
- Browse the OverDrive eBook site and select a title.
- Click on (Adobe EPUB or PDF book) Add to My Cart for each title (items will remain in your cart for 30 minutes). You can only put 3 items in your cart.
- Proceed to checkout when ready.
- Enter your ECRL card number, password, and click Sign In
- Choose your desired lending period (7 or 14 days)
- Confirm check out (you may only have 3 items checked out any time)
- Download the title. Choose Open when prompted.
- Adobe Digital Editions should open automatically.
- Connect the eReader to your computer. It will appear in the left-hand panel under "Bookshelves."
- In Library View, drag and drop the title from the right-hand pane to the eReader icon.
- Eject the eReader from the computer and disconnect.
- Navigate to the book on your eReader, and open it to start reading.

How to Download Library eBooks to your Kindle

Books are managed via Amazon.com

The device needs WiFi. Books will not download using 3G. Or you can transfer books from a computer using a USB cord.

- From a computer, go ECRL Overdrive at ecrl.lib.overdrive.com.
- Browse the OverDrive eBook site and select a title. Advanced search can limit search to Kindle compatible titles.
- Click on (Kindle book) Add to My Cart for each title (items will remain in your cart for 30 minutes). You can only put 3 items in your cart.
- Proceed to checkout when ready.
- Enter your ECRL card number, password, and click Sign In
- Choose your desired lending period (7 or 14 days)
- Confirm check out (you may only have 3 items checked out any time)
- Click the Get for Kindle button on the check-out confirmation page.
- Amazon will open. Log in to your Amazon account if you are not already logged in.
- Click Get Library Book link.
- Choose the Kindle device.
- The title will download when you sync your device.
